

Director for Scotland – Vacancy

An election will be held for the role of CAMRA Director for Scotland on 30 January 2027.

Nominations are now being accepted for any member interested in this role with a deadline of midday on 14 November 2026 by the Election Administrator, Stuart McMahon:

secretary@scotb.camra.org.uk

This will give branches time to consider the nominees prior to the election.

You can find the Election Procedure, Role Guidance/Responsibilities documents and Nomination Form here on the Members' Area of the website – scroll down to Scotland and click on the relevant tab (member login required).

Please note this extract from the election procedure:

Nominations

Interested parties will ideally reside in a branch within Scotland, however the National Executive can allow a candidate who lives outside the region to be nominated and stand. Interested parties should then send their nomination (an indication that they are willing to stand with the signature of a proposer and seconder who are CAMRA members from different branches within Scotland) to the Administrator along with a short biography about themselves and why they feel they should have the position of Scotland Director.

Any queries can be sent to the Administrator (Stuart McMahon) or to the current Scotland Director (Stewart Campbell): rd.scotland@camra.org.uk
